

CULTURAL RENDEZ-VOUS 2022

May 24 to 29

Come celebrate the relationship between the arts and nature during the 2022 Cultural Rendez-Vous Events, a highly anticipated annual event for both young and old: exhibitions, lectures, workshops, fun entertainment, musicians and street performances in Stewart Park! Bring a picnic to Stewart Park and enjoy the final day of fun activities.

A spring rendez-vous for the whole family!

EXHIBITIONS / MINI-EXHIBITIONS

VISIONS OF STEWART HALL: 1885-1963

Permanent exhibition

Stewart Hall Cultural Centre - 2nd floor

Stroll through the halls of the Stewart Hall Cultural Centre and journey into the history of this stately mansion. Discover the important figures who lived there and its various vocations before it became the Cultural Centre in 1963.

A travel back in time at your own pace!

BACA - LAND BACK CONTEMPORARY NATIVE ART BIENNIAL, 6th EDITION

Until June 19

Art Gallery

Launched in 2012, the Contemporary Native Art Biennial highlights the diversity in Native North American art practices. For this 6th edition, the focus will be on the land back movement, referring to the indigenous-led actions to recover stewardship of traditional lands and ecosystems, protecting them for coming generations. How is this knowledge shared, celebrated, and expressed in current artistic practices?

ODE TO NATURE LA BOUTURE MINI EXHIBITION

Until June 12

Open to all

Stewart Hall - Kids' Corner

Creativity is the playground of Marie Malgom, founder of La Bouture. Trained in graphic design, she creates flowers made of high-end crepe paper which are sculpted, shaped and dyed by hand, in Montreal. Come see her beautiful creations!
